Humanities

This major aims to prepare students for careers in public relations and communications. It explores Australian and international theories and practices, with an emphasis on ethical communication and engagement with a diverse range of stakeholders. The major offers a combination of theoretical and practical components. Students are introduced to communication and public relations theory and are expected to develop critical thinking, evaluative and analytical skills. Communication skills -- including writing, public speaking, team work and conflict management -- are taught in addition to the development of public relations strategies to achieve organisational objectives.

Admission Requirements (Onshore):

As per normal undergraduate admission requirements.

Duration: 3 years full-time or part-time equivalent; SGP1: 4 trimesters full-time or part-time equivalent

Course Structure - 72 credit points

Units in this structure may no longer be available at all course locations and, where appropriate, alternative units have been provided. Students are required to satisfy the total credit point value of both the degree and the major in order to graduate; this may require that additional units are taken, either as part of the major or as General Electives. To accommodate students impacted by this change, up to 2 credit points from the total credit point value of the degree (incorporating the major) may be waived. For further information, see https://myanswers.custhelp.com/app/answers/detail/a_id/1017/
