BANKING

BANKING (BBUS)

A Bachelor of Business provides a broad understanding of individual, organisational and societal issues. You will have the practical skills to identify business opportunities, analyse problems and implement solutions and you will be able to demonstrate a knowledge of business principles across key functional areas. You will have depth of knowledge in one or more business disciplines: accounting, banking, business law, finance, hospitality and tourism management, human resources management, international business, management and marketing.

Employment Prospects:

Completion of the banking major will open up employment opportunities for students in all types of financial institutions.

Course Codes: B1367

Bachelor of Business (BBus) in Banking
Management

Duration: 3 years available both full-time and part-time

Recommended Minors:

Finance

Contemporary banking is sophisticated and requires people with advanced expertise and ethical judgement. This major equips students with such knowledge and skills, helping them to become successful professionals in financial institutions. Students are exposed to important banking issues such as credit and lending decisions, legal and ethical implications, regulatory frameworks banking capital structures, and credit risk management. They learn how to effectively operate within this complex regulatory sector through the systematic application of research principles and methods that will inform their financial decision-making.

A fourth year of study is available in the form of an honours year.
