UNIVERSITY PREPARATION

K-TRACK

K-Track assists people to gain entry to undergraduate study with two entry points depending upon the performance of the student. The course is designed to not only help Indigenous people develop the skills necessary for success at university, but also to have them realise how empowering being a successful student can be. Following the successful completion of K-Track, students who accept their offer of enrolment, are strongly encouraged to take the K-Track bridging unit over the summer or winter term, which prepares them for the specific undergraduate degree they have enrolled into. If students are unsuccessful in K-Track they will be redirected to the OnTrack enabling course for the following semester.
